Taking Back our Lives and Star Families

This is a basis course to begin to learn the secrets from Our Star Families in the Galactic World in order to build a Divine Life on the truths of our Divine/Star Family's Agendas.

Sacred Ground Collective Community

Intentions

We hold space for women to wake up, acknowledge and heal the wounds they carry in order to build lives that bring benefit and good. We understand our hidden history as Galactic Star Families. Being deeply rooted in these truths, enables us to maintain sovereignty and restore ourselves to our Soul's true nature.

We honor each woman's experience, power, and authority, we encourage each to "go within", be in stillness, and find their unique contribution.

Agreements

- We gather in the Sacred Space of Safety and Sovereignty
- One person speaks at a time and each is free to pass
- We recognize that each woman is a leader in her own life
- We share leadership to preserve the integrity of the circle and purpose
- We pause to hear guidance from the intelligence of those of Good in the unseen
- We respectfully listen to each other's inner guidance
- We listen deeply from our heart
- We share concisely from our personal life experiences
- We listen with discernment rather than judgment
- We are self-responsible and apply Good Mind in monitoring our own energy
- We are not here to fix, change, nor advise unless asked
- Our spiritual experiences and visions are held as sacred and valuable
- What is spoken in the circle, stays in the circle

Introduction

Like the giant ocean liner, the Titanic, Earth seemed to be sailing with great ease. Over the years, the few voices calling warnings were assured, "All is well!" "Just love."

"No problem", was the general consensus, "just move your chair" to a different spot on the ship.

And so, the model for problem solving was to rearrange the furniture. Shift your view. No problem now. Sit back, eat, chat, and listen to great, uplifting music.

More and more it is evident that our lives, families, communities, and world is in trouble. More are acknowledging, "All is NOT WELL."

We have been given so many false concepts leaving us in a similar consciousness as those on the Titanic. Many voices are explaining why and using the old stories to suggest solution. Like moving your chair to another spot on the ship.

What has been kept from Humanity is the Overall Picture from our Star Families... What was our Original purpose? Why are we on Earth? What had we hoped to accomplish?

The result is that we have been living within systems designed to dominate and control our Soul families. Because most of the puzzle pieces are separate, they shake and are easily tossed about whenever the table is shaken.

In our world today, there is a dramatic play being enacted upon the world stage. We have been trying to live the pieces of our contribution on a landscape created to destroy such creations.

When you know our Galactic and Star History, it is a play that is Perfect - even in its Horrors.

We are all participants in the dramas.

Unfortunately, most of us have been programmed to forget the script, our lines, our commitment.

AND THAT IS WHERE THE PROBLEM LIES!

It is Critical that those who are ready, re-member our Galactic Plans and Families.

Some Concepts That Are Not True

- Humanity is the cancer on this planet
- All there is is Love
- This is a planet for learning
- We need the dark to grow
- When we have learned "our" lessons, we will not come back to an earth experience
- The most important quality for earth is to obey
- Men's nature is assertive and leading
- Female's nature is receptive and nurturing

In your journal:

Ponder and write:

What do you know about Yourself? Claim with a Reality Statement.... I am a presence of:

What cracks your walls?

Use your journal to note when you are "triggered" out of Good Mind ... How do I know... enmity between....

Use the Reality Shift process to write new stories

- Are not materialistic or money-driven
- Have artistic and creative inclinations
- Are interested in spirituality and personal growth

First Steps

Understanding our Galactic Star family's agenda and nature as an immense collective is the beginning

The values of my Star family and Spiritual teachers are.....

The first point of power is to claim secured channels to your Star Family

What tools or processes do you have that you can use to build relationships with this Family?

There is intelligence in Your Star collective that will serve you in building from a New Consciousness.

Assignments

Create one or two Reality Statements to use as your daily focus during the week. We will call this your "North Star".

Use your journal to note how you get back to or stay in Good Mind

Two Major Domination Concepts

"You are not enough"

"There is enmity between you, your sisters, your voice of authority."

Watch for those whispers and ask your Healing Teams to DEEP SIX the energy voice.

I am excited to share with you during this magik time!

Our Energy Field of Home had been greatly altered and contaminated before there was even a thought of Earth.

A Few Experiences in the Galactic Worlds that Had Entrapped all Souls and Had extended into our Earth Journey

- A lot happened to us as Divine Star Families in the Galactic worlds.
- Whispers from Outsiders deceived and they were invited into our fields
- We became totally owned
- Various plans to free ourselves, or get help did not work
- Earth plan was intended to be a way to identify and remove all trace of Outsiders and their energy of domination
- Before 2000, we were 100% entrapped from the 1st Galactic world into the 8th of Earth.
- Today, there is 25% of that Domination energy remains, almost exclusively in the 8 Dimensions of Earth Life
- We have regained the knowledge of Earth purpose, Female authority voice, male heart strength and can accomplish the major reason for Earth, to identify and remove the entire Domination influence.

Eight Worlds

Each world is composed of 8 ranges of energy frequency.

The worlds, then have different vibrational speeds and capacity.

Our total Energetic Field of Life has 64 dimensions, or ranges, of frequency.

Earth's 8 dimensions are the slowest and densest.

The Identification and REMOVAL of the Outside societies began in earnest in 2000. As of today, there is 25% of their presence remaining, mostly in the 8th world/Earth

The Plan for those in Female Body Suits

The Plan for the soul in a Female body was held within the original DNA and Chakra centers of power.

The Assignment to Design, Discern, and Speak with Authority was KEY for the accomplishment of Earth Mission.....

Why and How, the DNA and Chakra Unfoldment

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| 1. Causal | The most important aspect of Earth mission was having a soul who had the authority to remove the Outsiders. |
| 2. Feet | |
| 3. Base | |
| 4. Creative/Sexual | Therefore, souls who chose the mission of Authority, placed their ownership contracts with the design team who incorporated it into the Male Body suit. That body suit carried two contracts, was constantly being monitored and had to be in obedience to Outsider "masters". |
| 5. Solar Plexus | |
| 6. Hara | The Female body had NO ownership contracts, was free, not seen by any of the Outsider's monitoring systems. This soul could function in the denser energies of earth and be unseen as "she" explored, designed, and created cultures. Females created codes for each village of the mission force to thrive by using the Law of Manifestation. |
| 7. Heart | |
| 8. Thymus | |
| 9. Throat | |
| 10. Third Eye | The Chakras of the Female bodies show that mission as a natural unfoldment in the original DNAs. |
| 11. Crown | |
| 12. Knees | |
| 13. Base of Spine | The Males first three Chakras for Causal, Crown, and Heart. They vibrate at higher frequencies. That allows them to function as the one holding all possibilities and using the power of Heart energy to nurture the entire village. |
| 14. Medulla Oblongata | |

Distinguishing the Chakras

The chakras we have been using for a very long time reflect the crippled body suit, rewiring, and programs of the Outsiders put in place 250,000 years ago.

These are the basis of the original body suits.

1 - Causal- Spiritual Control Central: This point is at least 18 inches above the crown. At this chakra, the soul coming into the body re-evaluates the plans. When they are accepted the causal is activated like flipping a light switch. It is the soul's way of confirming, "This is my body, my life and I come with planned purpose."

2- Feet - Ground to Earth: The energy from Source moves through the portal of the Sun to be re-calibrated for use on this planet. For females, that energy moves from the Causal through her body systems into the feet chakra to firmly ground her to Earth. This gives the female the authority to speak and remove Outsiders from Earth and beyond.

3 -Earth - Roots to Gaia and Sisters: The energy for the Female goes immediately into our Mother, the Earth. This is her connection to the unlimited energy that Earth has stored for our support in our Earth walk. Here is where the Female anchors solidly into the bosom of Earth, the roots of her sisters as resource 4 - Base - Needs and Wants to Thrive: Next the energy naturally activates the base. This is where the female was to look out over this new planet and consider her own plans to decide what she would want and need in support of her family and the mission. This is her place to choose all that would cause the Souls on mission to thrive and be abundant.

5 - Creative - Manifesting Design: After building a relationship with the Earth and learning to ask for needs and wants, female energy moves to the the next center, the creative chakra. Here she learns to create from energy with simply a word. Here she becomes very aware that she has created the sees for what shows up in her life. She develops a keen sense of accountability for her world.

6 - Solar Plexus - What expands or constricts? Authority voice: This center holds the ability to discern what constricts life and what expands life. The solar plexus is the most important point on a female's mission.

She knows that Earth supplies all that she needs and wants and she knows that her ideas become physical. She recognizes any constricting, sabotaging, limiting forms in her world. She can taste good and evil., and knows that she is responsible to identify and remove the evil.

7 - Hara - Connecting to Collective and place in 'village': After the first five centers are activated then the energy of the hara clicks in to bring balance into her system that prepares her to move into the higher centers.

8 - Heart - Bringing Rooted Love into Earth Village: Only after refining her sense of integrity, her commitment to correct principles and with her foundational energy integrated and balanced was it intended that a female's heart chakra would naturally open. When a female knows that she has the power to claim space, design for Good, to hold the womb for the mission, then her heart comes on board. From that place she will act with compassion for the expansion of all. Forcing the heart to activate before a female is grounded in her power and respected for her voice does harm.

9 - Thymus - Dimensions beyond Earth: Now the female is ready to begin the exploration of other dimensions within our galactic experience, reclaiming her gifts and knowledge.

10 - Throat - Speaking Wisdom from Experiences: This center gives the female the ability to move the energy of her authentic expression into sound, to speak, to sing, to communicate. These sounds express her individual clarity, her unique role of service and vision for the greater families. Her words are not hollow and false but filled with her truth.

11 - Third Eye - Inner Gifts for Place in Star Plan: This point opens naturally to allow her inner skills to come forth as support of her authentic self.

12 - Crown - Secured Channel to Star Family: This is the place for her direct conscious connection to the Source, the Sun being an expression of Sacred. This point was designed to be instrumental to her guidance as she awakens to greater possibilities.

13 - Knees - Humility in Joyful Service: The next chakras are held in the knees These provide the action all of humanity wants to access. It is the conscious choice to step into our Universal purpose. In natural evolution, individuals transform and free themselves from tribal mind, from parasitic influences, from imbedded patterns to become a Master of our Self. Then they bow in service. In that process they are refined and live with sovereignty, nobility and integrity.

14 - Base of Spine - Deeper Personal Commitment: This indicates a step up into higher regions as the energy opens to the personal Tree of Life.

15 - Modulla Oblongata - Request for more Manna/Possibilities from Plan: The energy moving through the entire system and up the spine is intended to reach back to the Divine and ask for more energy. Each individual's reach for more energy bring great flow from Source that was intended to lift the entire family. Calling for "Manna from Heaven" completes the energy system's circle.

Message from Mother (appreciation to mythologist Joseph Campbell)
by: Carol Lynn Pearson

For all those little gifts you gave to the mythologists and archaeologists to give to me

I thank you, Mother.
For that precious big-bellied figurine pressed by Paleolithic hands and the magical naked outline of you on the walls of caves

I thank you.

I thought I was a Motherless child in an always Motherless house and then your little surprises began to come as did my tears, my grateful tears for there was your soft and ancient voice:

I am here. I am female. I am divine.

Thank you for the word "mother" spoken centuries before the word "father" for blood and baby do not lie

but testify that Mother was the First Thing the power that carried and birthed the universe and all in it, the sea, the earth, the animals

the upright ones, the men and women who loved in peace within Her safe cycle and gathered food to the easy sound of wind and rain.

I am here. I am female. I am divine.

I thank you, Mother, for brooding over your people when the dark times came, when the invaders came the Indo-Europeans from the north and the Semites from the desert, turning the birthing upside down so Athena was born of the forehead of Zeus and Eve was born of the rib of Adam.

Their gods were male and their swords were bronze and they named you Abomination and butchered and buried you without knowing they were planting you, for you are the transformer who turns a seed into a tree, the Tree of Life who is sturdy and many and grew in all places the goddess of many names that I read now on pages made from the three that speak for the tree:

I am here. I am female. I am divine.

Athena - Ceres - Cerridwen - Demeter - Diana - Hathor - Inanna - Isis - Kali - Maat - Venus - hundreds more - shining black or ivory or red and each a name that points to Mother.

The past does what the past is and it is gone.

Men are still warriors, but not all, for many understand that our very being turns now on our turning to our Mother, who is ready to correct our view of heaven so that God herself and God himself, who are always One can join on earth to bless the confused billions.

The next step is ours, daughters of our Mother and did we ever think She would not uphold us in our essential mission?

We think you, Mother, as now we rise the women with microphones in the halls of government the halls of justice, of media, of religion

the women penning books and scribbling poems the women helping women buy a new goat or a sewing machine the women marching with signs and songs.

There is a power in our words and our words are these:

We are here. We are female. We are divine.
