

Sleeping Women - Awake!

Day #5

May 13, 2022

Deborah:

Saw ownership tags coming off of “notorious” men such as Hitler. Their souls can now heal

Sharon Riegie:

I am going to make sure that I work with my spiritual team and the teams of those in my family and life who are currently in Male bodies, to assure all ownership vibrations are identified and removed.... for the next three days.

Angelique:

The vision I received was clear and practical. I can do it in my daily routine and am sure it will be healing for the souls in male bodysuits in my family to begin with. I can enlarge this group every day and stretch it to all male on the planet.

Lee:

I have a 52 year old son I can closely observe, who has had anger issues. I have also joined (last night) a local woman’s club (part of GWFC) whose focus is education and assisting women and children who have been through family violence. I am now a volunteer taking at a safe house.

Tara:

I will add it to my daily routine of healing. I will ask and also picture our guides and spirit families surrounding the entire planet removing the controlling chips and waking the men up to divine light of home. I will also work on the leaders of North Korea, Russia, etc. I did see that those leaders had more than one chip present during my journey!!

Tami:

Holding my staff- my place of sovereignty releasing love toward those who are not in alignment with truth. Speaking truth to shame and power over. Expression of truth in atmosphere.

Emma:

I can be more attentive to the discernment I feel around the men in my life and do immediate clearing and protection

Arleigh:

I see opportunities for encouraging new behaviors in males who are newly chip-free. Supporting them in change in all dimensions and time frames through to the present.

AlexSandra:

I need to trust that I have tremendous support from my guardian angels and galactic beings whereas I have been feeling alone sometimes. In my life I have been feeling invisible and have realized that part of my fear is that others will know about my spiritual gifts and punish me. I am a shaman who knows how to induce miscarriage and with the abortion issue I have been afraid they will find out and punish me again.

THANKS TO EVERYONE FOR YOUR INSPIRATION!
