Healing with color, Dr. Valerie Hunt, The infinite Mind

"Primary studies with hands on healers verified the uniqueness of the transaction between healer and healee. For example, healers who specialized in treating pain and quieting hypertension had strong blue-ish-violet fields when healing. Healers most successful in improving hype diseases, such as hypo-glycemia and hypo-thyrodism, or weak tissues and functions created a strong red-orange-amber field. Red was predominant with healers who regenerated muscle, bone, and nerves. A green-yellow field proved most effective with nerve disorders such as Bell's palsy, Cerebral palsy, or nerve degeneration.

". . . we realized that a transaction between the two fields was essential to hasten healing...

". . . we observed that before the brain wave was activated and before stimuli altered the heart rate, blood pressure or breathing, the filed had already responded. This led us to postulate that a person's primary response in this, "The first exchange with his world takes place first in the auric field, not the sensory nerves nor in the brain."

Healing with stones

"Though you have contacted me through a tiny pebble, I am concerned with vastly more than your planet, for I am connected with the mineral life that exists in various states through creation. Nature is full of paradox; you seek contact with what you consider a lowly form of life and, in fact, contact a universal presence. The human mind codifies and formulates, which is within its right and purpose, but you forget that all is one, that God is in all, and that even the most basic substance of life, which seems devoid of sensitive consciousness, is held in existence by its opposite, a vast consciousness extending beyond your imagination.

It was the beauty of this particular stone that drew you to me. Consciousness of beauty brings you into oneness with any part of the universe. The more you appreciate beauty, the more you are linked universally. The glory of God is everywhere, stretching from the farthest reaches of the universe to the little grain of sand, one and the same thing, held in eternal love and timeless with life.

Reverence all life. Emulate my patience. Unfold the mysteries of God, even of pebbles. Be a learner of life, a reveler. Let your domination be over yourself, and let your expanding consciousness see good life in all things."
