

You. Here's the voice. So welcome, everyone. This is our last class of this particular course called tag on the living on the galactic landscape. So really been wonderful to have you with me. It's like a weekly check in being with you. While I was here with Jennifer, I was saying to her, it kept me sane to be able to be with you all, and it made me realize how much I really so appreciate this whole work, this whole way of being together. The consciousness that we hold, for me, it's been life giving and life affirming. So let's take a breath, and I'm going to have you all mute yourself, and you'll be able to mute and unmute. So mute yourself and take a breath. Let your breath bring your attention into your physical body with gratitude for this vehicle, this body that's designed, upgraded now to carry your star soul, your being around on this earthly journey, and the intelligent field, and the one in charge of keeping that vehicle in good shape. So grateful that we've been able to shift that assignment from outsider control to divine family. So the body vehicle is able to do things, be corrected, heal as we had thought it could, but was quite entrapped, able to be cleaned and healed, and just designed for your work.

So grateful for that team. It's a powerful place to be, because from this present moment, in this physical body, in this female body, there is no greater power in all of the universe. And becoming master of that ability is a big part of why we are here. So let the breath bring that gratitude, appreciation into the body. You are here in your space, in your room, as well as in consciousness and presence in the circle. Each of us cocooned in the sixfold cocoon of stability, of safeguarding, guidance, and more shielded with extension field. Beyond that, you, everyone you are connected to in love, homes, land and collective, we invite into our space those beings of light, highest integrity, who have worked with us individually, who have worked with us even as a group, are grateful for their presence and their connection and commitment to our work of restoring ourselves and those we love to our divine family. Soul frequencies we're grateful to Gaia, that field that we call Earth, and recommit to our original agreement with her, that field to work with her valuing, respecting, and keeping her fields and her creations well and whole and beautiful.

Take a breath from this place, rooted in Gaia, on the planet, in your home. We're going to let our team and ask our teams to lift our awareness, our being, our consciousness, onto that platform, prepared for this particular work and information and sharing into the fourth world, grateful for the clarity that is there, the love that is there holding us. With that, our space is created and prepared, activated and opened. And so it is. So we're going to place ourselves into that circle, knowing that that field is also a field of divine good with all the possibilities of our home, our source, our beginning place. And so, as you place yourself in that circle, however many or by name or number you want to put in that field for their blessings, specifically individuals, furry ones, situations, we'll do that as we go around, too. So, Sharon Raji Maynard, here in Tulsa, Oklahoma, I'm going to place 64 individuals into that space of divine good. We have a myriad of furry ones in my family, so I'm going to put all our furry ones in and three very specific world situations to be held. And with that, I'll pass to arleigh, and we'll, of course, tag around.

So, arleigh.

Hi, I'm arleigh in New Zealand. I would like to place 23 people and three furry ones in the circle. There are four world events that I am concerned about, and I will pass on to Deborah. Thank you, Arleigh. I'm in North Carolina. I'd like to put in 38 people, several world situations, and several personal situations. And I will pass to Jennifer.

I'm Jennifer, and I'm in Tulsa, Oklahoma. And I would like to place ten people in the circle, and I will pass to Julie.

Hi, everyone. I'm Julie. I'm in Salt Lake city, Utah. I would like to place 13 people in the circle and several world situations. Also, I will pass to Teresa.

I'm Teresa on Woodby island in Washington. I would also like to put several world situations in the circle and eleven groups that are in different areas that contain multiple people. So eleven groups is what kind of constitutes them? And I will pass to Andrea.

Hey, it's Andrea, San Francisco. And I would like to place.

All.

The people in my heart and humanity who are dealing with hardship and animals that are being mistreated and many, many world situations and lots of energy toward the changers and the shakers and the. Oh, Pat, have you gone yet?

Pat?

I'd like to call on Pat.

Thank you.

So, I'm Pat. I'm in Augusta, Georgia, and you guys are so organized, but I'm going to be broad. So I'd like to place into our circle anyone with diseases that I know and many people that I don't know, I just know about and furry friends that have had one issue or another, but wonderful. And, yes, certainly several world situations where it's clear that they just can't get to their heart. So they need some help and anyone that is close to me who has pulled themselves away and where that healing can take place. Thank you. Is there anybody that's been missed? No, everybody's gone.

Okay, so we call in those teams, Pat, the PTO and galactic council teams, and also the Lani Akea team as it relates to outsider type energies, as well as the tag healing collective, which is multiple healer type modalities and draw their attention to these individuals and these situations, these groups, and ask them to move them into that place of healing with all of the processes of Ri at one went now to their soul's frequency that they work to dissolve what seems impossible. And in that shift, we know doors will open that were not possible before we give that directive to those teams grateful for their participation. Thank you so much for holding these loved ones in the way we most want them held. So it is okay, this is our last class of this course. Oh, I hope we can keep doing some things together along the way. Usually I would say, open the space for questions and feedback, et cetera. I am not going to do that today. So here's I'm going to say, if you have a question, feedback, want a little bit more information, make a note of it right there on your paper.

If we have time, we'll cover it. If we don't, I'm going to have you send it to me and I'll create a document or a specific video to answer those kind of questions. Okay? So just think about that. Also, I want to acknowledge the loss that Deborah has had with the loss of her hubby, Terry. So, no, we're holding you, Deborah. Okay. So I ask that you come with some idea of an issue, a situation. It might be a physical pain. So that's probably long lasting and it could be just come up shortly, whatever you want. So if you have that in mind, if you have something like that in mind, raise your hand. Then I'm going to open up and we're going to go around very quickly and I'm going to have you speak it into the circle just so that it is named as something that's not allowed, not acceptable, you're not going to normalize it. So we're just going to go around and I'm going to put you in an order so we can go quickly with this one. So, Arlie, Deborah, jennifer, andrea, Teresa, julie and Pat. So, Arlie, what is yours?

Yep.

Lower back pain.

Julie, can it be an issue. Yes. With a person? Yes. It could be that too. Okay. So I have a family member that I have an issue with. Okay. Andrea.

Putting out more energy than I'm getting back in my career stuff.

Teresa.

I would say what is home and where is home?

Jennifer?

I would say things going missing.

Pat. Oh, you're muted. Pat.

I think what I'm trying to get to is anything that is causing me to feel fear, to understand it and be able to put it in the right place. I guess that's the best way to say it. I'm sure it probably has some good use, but I don't like feeling it. So I need to understand it and come to grips with it.

So I want you to write that down, write the issue down on your paper and then I want you to note how uncomfortable or impainful it is in this moment. On a scale of one to ten, when you've got the number down, just show us with your hands one to ten, how painful uncomfortable is that for you? Okay. 576763.

Okay.

Oops, there's Teresa with the balloons. We don't know how to get rid of that stuff.

I can't hold my phone and hold up all my fingers at the same time. So I would say nine.

Okay. Did we get yours, Julie? Five. Got it. I want you to just take a breath and you may want to close your eyes because we're going to do now a dialog. So I'm going to ask the question and you're going to let your right brain, your softened, softened mind, speak to you and you're going to write it down. So who in my field needs blank the issue? Who in my field needs the issue? Why do you need the issue? Why do you need blank? What impact do you want it or need it to have on me? What impact do you the field that needs it. What's the impact you need it to have on me? Is there a story you are playing out? And if so, what? Life isn't safe. Have to be small. I'm in charge. Is there a story you are playing out? Going to freeze frame that energy field. Thank you for telling me what you need. I appreciate that. Freeze frame it. Now. Look behind you. Remember when we did the wooden indian? Look behind you in your genetic line. Who in my genetic line? Seven plus generations back, laid out that same story.

Come be with me. So notice who shows up, how they feel.

In this present moment. I'm speaking as if I am you. You can use these same words. In this present moment, I am restored to my position and authority to design my life experiences. In this moment, I am restored to my assignment to design and safeguard and choose my life experiences with that truth. Ask yourself, you, do you personally need to have that experience, that issue any longer? And if the answer is no, raise your hand. Do you personally need that experience? If the answer is no, just raise your hand. You, in this moment, are speaking in behalf of all in the past and all in the future. In your genetic line, you are saying no. It. So there's that feeling in front of you with that strong need. I want you to, in your imagination, to create a label and write on the label story of your pain. I need my pain in my left shoulder, because whatever the story is, write it on the label and reach out and put it on that form, that energy form. Take your breath. Breath. Notice whatever cords run from you to the form, any cords from the family behind you to the form, and you direct yourself and those seven generations paths.

Time to disconnect the authority to disconnect the cords, and those octopus extensions go right back into that form or that issue. Do whatever you need to do to disconnect the cords. And when the cords are all disconnected from you and from the generations behind you, when they're all disconnected, raise your hand. Remember, don't cut the cords. Bolt it down, unbolt them. Straighten the hooks back into the form. They go. How about you just snap your fingers, Camille? The energy. It's called cama. The energy. Clean it up. Snap your fingers, tap it off your body. Release it from your body. Take a breath. I want you in your imagination. See what your life and the world you're in. What does your life look like with that issue gone? What does your life look like with that issue gone, all resolved? And just write maybe a paragraph or a few words. What is in your life? What is in your day? What is in your week when that issue is gone? Write it down.

See that life issue gone. Resolved. Now take another breath. What does that feel like? What does it feel like? Let yourself feel the energy. Breathe that energy in as feeling. What does it feel like? You can put the words down, then close your eyes and feel it. Put the word down, but close your eyes and feel it. And then when you're ready, embrace that life for yourself and all the generations behind you. You bring them into that feeling, into that life. Place them in the hands of divine good. They completed the task they were given. The contracts in their life are fulfilled, and they are moved into that land of celebratory light, celebratory good of restoration to their soul. They are freed from that energy, as are you. And then when you're ready, bring your attention back to this circle. What I'm going to do, I'm going to put you in breakout rooms. There'll be two or three per room. And I want you to share how that was for you especially. How did that word need? Because what we've used in the past is, who knows why this is going on for me? Who can give me answers here, but this is a different one.

Who needs it? So how did that feel? So share a little bit of that if you'd like. Also share what that feeling was like. And as you're hearing each other, share your feelings, what life looked like. But what does it feel like? Allow time so that you can feel each other's feeling, how that would be for them and how that would be for you. So I'm going to put you into rooms, like I said, and we're going to be there for about seven minutes. That gives you about two to three minutes each. So a little, maybe more time than you really need just for sharing initially, but then you can have time for talking. I will send a little note in to the room. It will come in and say three minutes. So halfway through, I'll say you're halfway through. And then you'll get another notice that says you have 1 minute left. And just when that minute is over, they're going to bring you back into the main room. You don't have to do anything. So when the little note comes up that says you're invited into room a, go ahead and click that.

You'll get in there faster. Okay. But when you're in your room, just wait for zoom to bring you back to the main room. That gives you a little bit more time on your end. Okay. I'm sure that somebody in your group will totally understand what I just said, even if you feel a little confused. So here we go into the rooms. See you on your way when you're back. Okay, bye.

It?

Yeah.

Okay.

So I want to go around and just give anybody who wants to, maybe at least three of you or everyone, if you want to. What was the takeaway for you? What did you notice? And then we're going to take a break. So go around like in the same order as before. I'll just tell you what the order was. Arlie, Deb, julie, andrea, Teresa, jennifer, and Pat. And you're always welcome to say pass.

So, arlie, my issue was left shoulder pain. I went back and talked to the relatives, or the relatives were there, and the message was, the only way I can slow down because there were hard scrabble. Women with hard lives, is if I'm in pain or if I can't carry on. So as you age, also as you age, the body normally falls apart. This is normal. And I definitely found that I personally don't need to believe that anymore. The thought came to me that I can, without hesitation or thought, use my body as the vehicle for my divine self that it was meant to be. And of course, excitement and joy and possibilities. The usual, Sharon, the usual. When you get rid of this.

Great Deborah. Yep.

Mine was kind of weird because when I went know to ask my relative to come forward, it wasn't a genetic relative, it was a soul relative of me back in the past, which.

I.

Didn'T really think about at the time. But then later I'm like, wait a minute. It was supposed to be a genetic relative, but it made sense. It was my lower back pain. And what's interesting is all of this started a couple of weeks before.

Probably.

Three weeks, two to three weeks before my husband got ill and I fell. And my back was just crazy. And I mean, I really couldn't lift things. I couldn't do much. And we had been talking about him doing some of Sharon's work and different things, and it was all part of the thing, but it was.

Kind of.

Weird to say, but it was like, going forward, it's like, I don't have to be alone. I can still be with partners and other people. And it's sort of a weird thing to say since my husband has only been. Tomorrow will be a week. And I thought, well, maybe he's going to walk into another body, his soul. Who knows? I don't know. Could be. And I realized it's been a theme through this lifetime and many, many others that for me to do that I couldn't be with someone else to do important work. Yeah, it was kind of exciting to think, okay, I don't have to be alone forever.

And.

Thank you. Thanks.

Great, Julie.

Ok, so for me, I didn't really see any other spirits or generations whatever, but mine. I guess we discussed that mine may not get resolved in this lifetime. I don't know. I've already thrown it to a higher power. It's just ridiculous. So I just kind of went along with it, thinking that what I'd really like to feel is a great big. And anyway, that's.

Andrea.

Well, let's see.

I kind of just saw back to kind of becoming a teenager, sort of like feeling a little bit less safe around certain attention and then also kind of just sort of imagined or sensed back in time the lineage of family history or even down to just little earth spirits in the forest and then some of the dark stuff. Less safe showing up around, not being visible. And it's better to not kind of happy small and hide out. So it's nice to put that all to really kind of reframe into I am safe and protected and guarded, and it's safe to share my gifts and to thrive and be visible in the world. And that just felt really joyful and freeing, exciting, inspiring. To feel that kind of love being loved and supported in the world with total protection and discernment felt great.

Teresa, you're on.

So mine was about what is home and where is home? And the lineage that showed up for me was my grandmother's on both sides. And they were expressing a lot of sadness and heartbreak and regret of dying at a time when they were just coming back into themselves, kind of just into that queen of themselves phase. And they didn't have enough time and they didn't have enough time with those that they loved. And I had felt that kind of that panic feeling of that. And so the story is that there's never enough time with those that I love. I'm going to die soon. I was actually surprised that they showed up, but from my memory as a child, I think they died young. I don't know how old they were, but I think they died young. They certainly weren't present in my life for very long. So letting go of that design, what it felt like was lower stress, greater ease, joy in togetherness, joy in being apart, trusting in life, trusting in myself. And Arlie also reminded me of Sharon's 11th hour protocol that talks about kind of if we have kind of this death journey or contract and how we might change.

So that's kind of the long and the short of mine.

Good. Jennifer.

Mine brought up period when I was two, when I was terrified of my father. And for don't. I'm sure at that time, Sharon and my father had no idea why, but going through the process, I saw that the reasons I had come into this physical body were to do some pretty powerful things. And at age two, I realized that that power had been taken away from me. And I realized now that those who took that power were definitely not of my light, but going through the process and helped me realize that I do have the power to claim my power, and I am safe in doing so. And I am supported by many groups and communities, and I experience the joy and laughter and adventure that comes with that change.

Thank you, Pat.

Well, mine was this fear of just some nameless fear, but it always seems to be around the fear that I won't make it, that I won't have enough money, et cetera, et cetera. And I came to grips with. I think it's like the way of hitting yourself over the head because it feels so good when it quits, when you quit doing that. And I looked at it kind of, like through different eyes, and I saw that I'm not likely to do that. Why would I be afraid? I'm not likely to quit. I think I have that fear. So I won't quit. I'll keep on the path. I'll keep doing the work. And I'm thinking, but I love to do the work. I love what I do. Why would I have to do that to myself in order to make myself do what I love to do? There is no need for it in that sense. And the other, I guess, is coming, I can tell. I've been working on this, is trusting God that things come and they keep coming. And I'm thinking, but I'm not safe enough yet. I'm not safe enough yet. It's so, you know, but I can't live with that kind of fear, and I don't.

And I look back in all the women that I knew in my family, they're all strong women. They're just all strong women. And I think part of it is also that I've never wanted to be seen as not being able to handle anything, not being able to be competent or being incompetent or not having enough will to go forward or enough, whatever it is. I seem to have struggled with that a lot. So when I'm not like that, things just work naturally, people come, good things happen, and so forth and so on. And I'd like to be in that place more often. So I like the process because it makes me come to grips with what's really true.

Good.

Something to think about is when your life is with this issue, whatever the issue was, whatever the wish is, plan B. It's on your plate. You don't know where it came from necessarily. I mean, in tag, we can get into that more, but it's on your plate. And if you let it stay on your plate, the energy that's popping up will take you to an end result. But I call it plan B because we know we have a the competency. We have the safety. We have the discernment. We have the assignment to design our life and then safeguard it so we can put in a plan A. So all of you had put in a plan A, and it's not to conflict with or battle against plan B. We're not creating a fight. Plan B has its, you know, it's been going along. Now we're saying, oh, I see you. Something in me needs plan B. Something in me needs plan B. Okay, unplug. Plan A is now in place. What I find when I put plan A in place, it's really important to be able to feed it, experience it, as well as to let it go, because how it develops and how it shows up and the steps, you don't have any idea.

Barbara Marx Hubbard, most of you have heard her name before. Barbara Marx Hubbard was a Jewish woman, and many years ago, she's passed on now, but many, many years ago, she was taking a drive along the California coast and was directed to go to this monastery and check herself into this monastery. She didn't know why, but she got there. And so she had all these books to read, all about the life of Christ. Now, she's Jewish. The books were about Christ. And so she's reading these books about the life of Christ. I think it was about a week she checked herself in for. And she's going, like, in her quiet moment, she's going like, here's the blueprint for life. Here's the blueprint for life. He was a model of how to live life and how to be with people. And she's in tears, and she hears within herself, yes, share that with the world. And she's even more tears because she says, I don't know how. Here's plan A that she has been invited to do. I don't know how. You don't know how either. So the next bit of information that she heard was this.

You choose. Will do. That's the letting go. You choose. You hold it, you say yes to it, then you let go think about that possibility that there might be a time when you need to say, who needs this? Because I don't need it. I don't think I need it. Who needs this? And take that tack. And Julie, it doesn't matter. And the others, it doesn't matter if you sensed your generational, we called them in and we directed your team to clear generational. We gave that directive. It will happen. We are no longer doing it just for ourself or for those in our world here. We are now absolutely doing it generationally and back, present moment and into the future.

That's what we're doing. So the second thing is this. Andrea will probably chuckle because she said to me, how many times, Andrea, where's the feeling? And I'm going, like, the new plan a your reality statement. Remember, when you do the reality shift, you have that statement created. You create the declaration your team creates, literally, a software program for you, literally codes that they anchor in your field and place it in the fifth dimension.

That's the hard drive. That's some automatic programs. And in that fifth dimension, in that hard drive, has come your birth plans, the things you need to move out because of the 11th hour ego, beginnings, all that stuff in the fifth dimension, which is right where mental body and emotional body meet. So we've been doing a lot. So Andrea said to me, where's the emotions, mom? Where's the emotions? Where's the feelings? Okay, here's what we're working under this concept. Our physical body, the cells in our physical body, change, what, every week, two weeks, day. I mean, our bodies are changing constantly. So we often talk about storage being held in our physical bodies, okay? But our bodies are changing constantly. So what is it that's directing our physical body to keep the old stories stored, the stories themselves. So here's the premise. So I'm inviting you to be in the laboratory, to be scientists and kind of track with this. The theory is this, that the frequencies of emotions, feelings, are like the rays of the sun. They literally can change the cells and the information of the cells, the feelings, can broadcast and neutralize the cells in a different way than the words.

So when I had you say, what does that life look like? What does it look like? Words, pictures, et cetera, colors, whatever you got. What does it feel like? If there's a resolution, when the resolution is there, what does it feel like? Is an important new concept for us to try on in this tag work to be very conscious about spending time maybe daily or three times a week or whatever in the feelings of the new. And when you're working in a dysfunctional relationship, it's important that you stay in your own lane. Because in any kind of dysfunctional relationship, especially, it's easy to get entangled with one another. Right? And so disentangling would be part of your reality. You're disentangled so that you're separate. You're disentangled. Any cords, get connected, pull the cords, eliminate the contracts. Disentangled. Now, how does that feel? When you're disentangled, as you bless what you care about, you're not throwing them to the wind, you're not putting them out homeless. You're disentangling them. You bless them, turn them over to their team to do their highest and best in theirs. And then focus on how that feels for you. The lightness, the confidence, the blessing nature that you've given you.

See? So relationships are a little bit sticky sometimes, but getting in your own lane is really important. Knowing that this person and persons that you love, bless them, love them. Tag and transform. Definitely. But then build the feeling of what it feels like when you're. Well, when you're supported, when you're joyful. Okay. With that, we're going to take a break of five minutes. It's five minutes. It's enough. Anyone need more? Okay, let's see. It looks like we will be back at 47 after the hour. Let's do it. 48 after the hour. Okay, see you back then. Bye.

Okay, so I'm going to go over the laws. Tag is not based on we hope things will happen. It's based on laws and it's based on the information about our galactic worlds, our agenda there, why we even left home. It wasn't God. God isn't there. There's no such thing as God in those worlds. They are collaborative worlds. We working together like a beehive. So there's no hierarchy. And yet here we are in this earth experience. And that's because this is a mission force. This is a mission we're on. And we're not here to prove to God that we can be obedient. We're not here to do a job that God gave us to do. We're not here to learn a lesson of some kind. That's not why we're here. We're here to eliminate the outsider types energies that has just been destroying our divine families from before Earth and continues to be shown to be present in our world today. The reason it's taken us so long to get that done is because the outsiders discovered that the soul in a female body was not owned and therefore had the authority to say, I know who you are, back to where you came from, had the authority to speak into the heavens with that Sophia power.

This is my land, this is my home, this is my space, this is my family into the heavens. Because I have authority, I can discern these energies. These behaviors are not of the light. And with my ability to discern that, I have the Sophia authority to say, PTO, remove them into extinction. It's taken us this long to get back that authority. So we've been really messed up. But here's the laws. I'm just going to go over the kind of quickly the law of manifestation on this planet. It says, whatever is in energy in the unseen, because it's unseen. Whatever is in energy is going to slow down until it becomes form or manifested. Your inner world determines your outer world. If it's in your outer world, you're carrying it in your field. The law of personal choice. We are not doing a collaborative mass consciousness here because it would take too long to come to consensus about getting rid of the outsiders. So we have personal choice on this planet, on this mission, simply because one person discerning that over there is energy that's not of the light has the right and responsibility and by law can say, I know who you are, pto remove it.

She doesn't have to gather, gather and gather and get consensus. She can, but she doesn't have to. Personal choice. The love. Ask and receive. The souls in physical body suits are the ones who have the right to make changes on this planet. In this planet, in this world. So you have greater power in a physical body and a female body than Archangel Michael, Raphael, Metatron, Christ, Kwan Yan.

I don't.

You know, masters of the Far east.

Whatever.

You have greater power and assignment. The law of reciprocity says what you give out comes back to you one hundredfold. In order to resource this mission, because we didn't bring in a pocket full of money. It was never intended that our families would be the way we would be resourced. It was not intended that way. It was intended that one soul would be resourced by the manna from heaven. The ideas coming through, and you grab a hold, and that idea attracts you. I want to make the best ceramic pot in the world and sell it all over. Well, of course, we started with villages. So I am going to learn how to cook the best food. And because everyone loves my food, that will be my way of exchange and resourcing myself, or the pots, or the dance, or the prayers, whatever. That idea attracts you and brings you joy is what was intended to support you. And the outsiders came up with this wonderful idea that says, hey, if you get an idea from God, manna from heaven that you love and you love it, you have to give it away free. Do you see how that absolutely eliminated the divine system of support?

And it was intended that here we are in the village, and we all start kind of like at zero because we're new. But as you do your cooking and I do my gardening, and somebody else does the art, and somebody else does the healing, we all raise, we all become more expanded together. We don't do this, like, in our world today. Totally, totally corrupt. Okay? But those are the basic laws. So here we're coming kind of to the end of this particular course. And what I wanted to do is give you a quick rundown. Some of you already know this. I've got to get back over to that. Some of you already know. When I started to bring back my ability to be present with teaching again, I had some really great advisors and said, what do you think? And they said, bill, get really clear.

About what you're doing.

And I did. And then I formed what I call the sacred ground collective. So we could gather, not just, this is where we could play on the galactic landscape. So the sacred ground collective has many circles, and I'm going to just show you some of them here. And your advice, you can be a part of any of them you want. So on Monday, we have what we call the vision circle, and it's designed basically to come chitchat a little bit, but do a guided journey of some kind. Everybody who hosts does their journeys a little bit differently. So you get to experience different people's leading up journeys so that you have a space. It's an hour where you can be in connection, in relationship to your own inner guidance. That's a Monday circle. Our Wednesday circle is called the freedom Truth writers. And that is for those who are absolutely not happy with the way things are going in the world. And it's a laser focused. We're focusing on this issue or this organization or this energy to really target moving out those outsider energies. So that's Mondays and Wednesdays. Monthly we have a guardian circle where we come together holding sacred space for the new things that are coming into the world.

So that's a monthly. And monthly we have a crystal broadcasting. It's like making your own vision board, something like that. What are you broadcasting this month into the world? And so there's the opportunity to come and kind of create. With that in mind, we have the wise woman mycelium that meets quarterly where you as a woman can come and for three minutes you speak your vision, your wisdom, what you know is valuable. You speak it into that mycelium and the other women are there to hear you. And then that becomes part of the energy from which others can draw. Now, we have also, and I've taken it off because the Thursday morning group used to be a healing circle group, and they wanted to take a hiatus, and they have, and now they're coming back and their group meets, and I'll get that on the website when I get back home. Their group meets, basically to be in sacred space with one another. And once a month, our friend from the Netherlands and Angelica Angelique leads a grandmother circle, a specific 13 clanmother circle. And that's once a month. Any of those circles, you can say, I want to continue having a weekly or a bi weekly, monthly time set aside with others to hear my vision, to hear my own inner guidance, or I want to really be with those who want to focus on eliminating or the Thursday morning of personal space, sacred space, and grandmother space.

Anyway, that's in the collective, so you're welcome to do that. So we are going to meet again in a month, and I'll let you know the dates that will give you time to apply what you've got going, see what comes up. That's emerging for you so that when we come back together, we'll be able to share. This is what's been going on for me and this is what's happening. And I'll have some ideas and some steps to help that move forward also. So with that, what is it that you want to say before we close? Takeaways. And again, I'm not time much for questions, so just jot them down, get them to me in an email, and I'll get something out for all of them. But space is open. What would you like to say as we close?

I would just like to say thank you for holding the space for us and for so nice to meet everyone. Thanks for weaving this all in together, keeping it forefront of mind and yeah, for the transformation we're all taking on together and for leading us.

I would like to say thank you for being connected to the incredibly wonderful resource pages that you have put up. I've been going over them fairly frequently, reminding myself of stuff that I've learned in the past, reviewing. I love everything about it, the way it's organized and so on and so forth. It's been super, really helpful to me. So thank you for that. And of course, everything that Andrea said.

Thanks for the feedback.

I want to say thank you. I'm sorry I couldn't be here for all of them. If I could have, it would have made the last four weeks easier, but it wasn't possible to do that. But thank you so much. And even just knowing you guys were here was helpful and supportive. So now I have to go back and finish all my homework and move forward even more.

Yeah, exactly.

Well, I want to say thank you too, Sharon. I thought, well, I'm not sure that I'll be in the right place. But I said, as I got into it, I felt like, oh, wow, this is exactly what I needed. It's been really perfect for me, and I really thank you a lot, and I really love meeting all of you, and it's great to be in a group that is so supportive. I just want to report, let's hope it lasts. But the other night I woke up at 330 in the morning and I couldn't get back to sleep. And I chewed on my relationship with my daughter, and I finally said, that's it. I can't do this anymore. I give it to you. And I know I've tried this before, but it worked this time. Don't you know, when you feel free.

Of that.

It has to be because somebody agreed. So thank you. Good.

Well, it's been really great to be with you. And again, in a month, we haven't heard some of the things that you're working on or projects that are coming up, and that will be fun to know about, too. But keep moving forward, applying, keeping track so that you can document for yourself and be able to share with us. And moving forward. There's other things that I'm thinking of that I'll be able to share with you, too, in a month or so. And I'll have it at the same time. So it will be a Thursday, 330 Pacific time, the same time. So that hopefully I'll get it to you enough ahead that you'll be able to fit it into your time. Okay. Love you.

Love you back.

Until we meet again and show up wherever you want to show up.

Okay.

Lots of love.

Thank you.

Bye, everyone. Bye.
